TO THE
LADIES and GENTLEMEN
OF THE

University, City, and County of OXFORD.

IMpressed with Gratitude for the many Favours conferred on us during the five Years we have been Proprietors of this Library, we beg Leave to return our most respectful Thanks for the same, and humbly hope for a Continuance of that Favour we are solicitous to deserve.

Having now enlarged the Library to upwards of Seven Thousand Volumes, and compleated many Sets that were broke in the Time of our Predecessor Mr. Leonard Wood. We hope that those, who are in Possession of Books that belonged to his Library, will be so kind as to return them, the Whole of the Stock being purchased by us.

By a regular Supply of every Publication of Merit, we hope to obtain the Public Favour, which will be ever gratefully acknowledged,

By their most obedient humble Servants,

PALMER and MERRICK.
